AN UNEQUALLED EDITION OF THE LIFE OF SAMUEL JOHNSON

BY JAMES BOSWELL

Printed by J. M. Dent & Co., of London, for McClure, Phillips & Co.

Edited by ARNOLD GLOVER, with an Introduction by Austin Dobson

Samuel Johnson was one of the most interesting personalities in the history of English letters, made so to us by Boswell's splendid biography. This work is often considered of greater excellence than Johnson's own writings. At all events, it is the standard of biographical literature, and deserving of the best in the art of book-making. This it has received in this new edition. It is handsomely printed and bound in three large octavo volumes, and richly illustrated. One hundred drawings by Herbert Railton, based on old topographic engravings and on such localities as still exist, form a lasting record of the places connected with Johnson and his times. In addition, the volumes contain ten photogravure portraits, done in colors, of Johnson and his contemporaries. Per set, three volumes, $9.00 net; postpaid, $9.46.

A large-paper edition has also been prepared, limited to 350 copies for America, with a series of thirty portraits, reproduced in tinted photogravure, of Boswell, Johnson, and other contemporaries. Per set, $18.00 net; postpaid, $18.66.

LIFE ON THE STAGE

BY CLARA MORRIS

PERSONAL EXPERIENCES AND RECOLLECTIONS

Although this is a book of the stage, it is not whitened or rouged for the foot-lights. It is but a collection of simple narratives, told with a peculiar tenderness and frankness, a gayety and a buoyancy, showing the "man and woman" side of the great personages of the stage. In these true stories, the Booths, Lawrence Barret, Jim Fiske, Augustine Daly, and many another figure out of the past in whom the world is interested, live again. Price, $1.50 net; postpaid, $1.62.

Says HENRY G. WATTESON: "No one who takes up Life on the Stage will lay it down until he has finished it."

LIFE OF PASTEUR

BY R. VALLERY-RADOT

Translated from the French by MRS. R. L. DEVONSHIRE

This biography of the great scientist is a notable addition to biographical literature. Much has been written with more or less accuracy concerning Pasteur's discoveries, but these volumes tell his life story. The work will never be equaled as a revelation of the man and of the methods by which he effected his tremendous achievements. It is authorized by the Pasteur family, and written by Pasteur's own son-in-law. With portrait frontispiece. Two volumes, 8vo, $7.50 net; postpaid, $7.90.

Says the London Times: "It is one of the most delightful biographies of modern times."

AN IMPORTANT BOOK FOR BIBLE STUDENTS

CONSTRUCTIVE STUDIES IN THE LIFE OF CHRIST

THIRD EDITION.

By ERNEST D. BURTON and SHAILER MATHEWS
Professors in the University of Chicago

THE ORDER OF TREATMENT

is that of the Stevens and Burton "Harmony of the Gospels," and the book constitutes a compendious commentary on the Gospels as thus arranged.

THE METHOD OF TREATMENT

is interpretative and historical. The most important political and social features of New Testament times are described, and the endeavor is made to present the events of the Gospel history in a true, historical perspective.

THE PURPOSE OF THE BOOK

is expressed in its title; it aims to guide the student in the construction for himself of a Life of Christ, derived directly from the sources as they exist in the New Testament.

THE PLAN OF STUDY

is to present the best attained results of biblical scholarship, employing the best modern pedagogical methods. The studies contain: (1) an analysis of the Gospel narrative; (2) concise notes of information on matters about which accurate knowledge is not easily obtained; (3) brief interpretation of difficult passages; (4) geographical and chronological explanations; (5) specific directions for study, and for the construction of a short Life of Christ by the student himself; (6) questions which lead the student into an understanding of the Gospel history.

The book contains a beautiful and accurate map of Palestine and numerous illustrations.

Third edition. 302 pages. 8vo, cloth, $1.00.
